June Incident Highlights

On the night of June 2nd, deputies were alerted to a residential prowler call in Cardiff. The responding deputies stopped two separate vehicles leaving the location. Both men driving each vehicle were taken into custody and arrested for possession of narcotics and stolen items from multiple previous theft cases.

On 6/15/22, a woman was returning from walking her dog and was followed into the front door of her home in Encinitas by an adult male. The man forced his way into the house and began strangling the woman. Another person in the house came to her aid, fighting off the suspect who then fled in his vehicle. Responding deputies found and arrested the suspect by vehicle stop soon after the incident, and he is currently in custody.
